

ANDREW MÖLLER

Citadel CEO
BCom (Economics); LLB

Andrew Möller is an alumnus of Durban High School (DHS) and CEO of Citadel. He has over 30 years of experience in the financial services sector and brings a wealth of leadership experience to his role as a DHS Foundation trustee.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013 – Appointed CEO of Citadel.

Andrew heads up the Citadel Group, which has offices both locally and offshore. The company has 11 offices across South Africa and one in Guernsey, Channel Islands. It employs 473 people. Citadel has more than R97 billion in assets under management. Andrew has been recognised as one of the longest standing CEOs in the industry.

2010 – Appointed Citadel Head of Wealth Management.

2001 – Moved to the Citadel Wealth Management division.

When Citadel and Deloitte launched a joint venture, Deloitte Private Clients, Andrew moved from Durban to Cape Town to embark on his career as Wealth Manager.

1996 – Andrew joined Citadel and was one of the founders of the Durban offices.

His first position at Citadel was in the fiduciary team's tax and legal division.

1994 – Joined the Old Mutual legal team.

EDUCATION

1989 – LLB: University of Natal (currently known as University of KwaZulu-Natal).

Participated in the Moot Court Finals, making him one of the top four law students in South Africa.

BCom (Economics) Cum Laude: University of Natal.

1983 – Matriculated from DHS.